SURVIVORS OF THE COMMODORE WRECK AT JACKSONVILLE.

Four More Landed at Port Orange a Famished Condition, Making Twenty in All Saved.

BECAUSE SENATOR-ELECT MONEY QUIETLY LEFT THE CITY.

Views of Congressman-Elect Robbins, Who Has Just Returned from

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Jan. 4.-Captain Edward Murphy, commander of the lost steamer Commodore, Stephen Crane, the novelist, C. B. Montgomery, cook, and Willeft the ship in four boatloads. Twelve Cu- Havana bans embarked in the first, four more in and four, including Captain Murphy, Crane, Higgins and Montgomery, in the fourth. The first three were lifeboats, the last a ten-foot dingy. The men in the third boat away. Just as they started ing himself along the towline to the dingy. The captain realized that this meant death when near the Commodore it gave a lurch, sank and the men on the raft were drawn They were: James Redigan, engineer: Ed Ritter, assistant engineer; Frank Grain, mate; W. A. G. Smith, fireman; Modesto Leon, Cuban pilot and guide, and Jonas Frankha and Murray Noibes, two colored

Four More Landed. CINCINNATI, O., Jan. 4.-A special

the Commercial Tribune from Jacksonville, the twenty-eight men on board. Those landed were Maj. Julio Roderijuez-Raz, Jose Alvarez, Manuel Gonzales and Louis Sierra-Maderas. The men were observed in the surf and boats put out to aid famished, and what little food was in the have not seen the other eight men reported missing. The men without a doubt lost are E. B. Ritter, James Readigan, Frank Grain, Julio Rodbar, Joseph Dehaney, L. R. Marburg, M. Leon and W. A. G. Smith.

MR. MONEY RETURNS.

Mississippi's Senator-Elect Creates a Little Excitement at Havana.

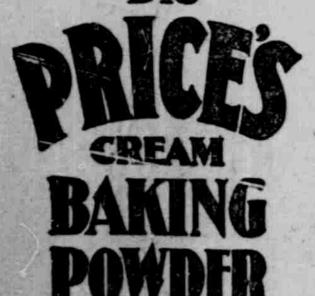

HAVANA, Jan. 4.-Senator-elect Money, of Mississippi, a member of the committee on foreign affairs of the United States Representatives, has been the this city last week and put up at the Hotel Inglatera. All foreigners are watched here from the time they land until they leave. Somehow Mr. Money said that he had gone to Mantanzas, where two American newspapers have located themselves. To-day, however, Mr. Money to-day published an editorial refergard to his absence. The newspaper has realized that any breach of the law should be more than willing to comply with await the senator's return from his expe- expected. dition to know how he liked his picturesque This evening Mr. Money said he had been to the interior on business of a wholly private character. He saw certain estates, he said, with a view to investment, He was neither molested by the government outposts nor did he see any insurgents. He dined to-night with Consul General Lee and with Mr. Walter B. Parker United States consul to Santa la Grande, turned and refuses to explain matters, La Lucha will probably feel turther aggrieved The correspondents of the Imparcial, Heraldo and Correspondencia, of Madrid, have received orders from their respective newspapers to retire from this city to Porto Rico, and there await further orders. The newspapers have taken this step in view of the prosecution commenced against them the government for severely criticising the Cuban administration and the conduct of the campaign against the insurgents. It is reported that all the United States consuls in Cuba will successively come to Havana for a conference with Gen. Fitz- the presence of pus causes septicemia. hugh Lee, the consul general. Walter H. Baker, the United States consul at Sagua a Grande, arrived here yesterday, and is stepping at the Hotel Inglatera. Francisco Pabron, classed as a rebel incendiary, was executed at Cabanas fortress Detachments from the column reconnoftered the hills of Caplazo, Arroyo de Agua, Rincon de Isabel, Lena Cruz, San Joaquin and Pinar, burning over 400 huts and destroying everything likely to afford food to the insurgents or their horses. General Weyler has conferred the title of chief of staff of division upon General Andres Gonzales Munoz, who has been very sick until now, but has recovered his

The steamer San Domingo has arrived here from Spain with fourteen officers and from Santiago de Cuba, brings Colonel Paviel, twenty-four officers and 670 soldiers, the Manuela, from the same port, brings fifty-three sick. The Chamber of Commerce of Havana and several delegates from other towns in

Awarded Highest Honors-World's Pair. ·DR:

A pure Grape Cream of Tartar Powder. Free am Ammonia, Alum or any other adulturant, 40 YEARS THE STANDARD.

the presidency of Civil Governor Porua. They adopted resolutions referring to the reconstruction as far as possible of civil order in the province, the establishment of zones of cultivation in the neighborhood of the fortified towns, and measures to defend agricultural laborers. The meeting appointed a committee to consider the question and to advance the project. Twenty-three political prisoners have been sent to the Isle of Pines by way of surgents under Maximo Gomez at Marroquin, which is in Santa Clara province. west of the central trocha. The attempt of the insurgents to pass. General Luque says. was prevented at Santa Teresa and at several other points. At Santa Teresa 400 insurgent cavalry attacked a Spanish convoy and were met with grape shot, which SLIGHT FLURRY AT HAVANA caused great destruction. It is estimated GENERAL that the insurgents lost over 100, the loss of the Spanish column was one captain and one soldier killed and thirteen soldiers wounded. The Spanish convoy arrived at Arroyo Blanco, which is on the boundary ine between Puerto Principe and Santa

Colonel Alsina reports that he has dispersed several groups of insurgents at Brufftas, in Pinar del Rio, and has killed nine insurgents and burned over one hun-

Mr. Olney, secretary of state, has sent an order to United States Consul General Lee to visit Henry Delgado, the correspondent of the New York Mail and Express. who was captured as a political prisoner and, being sick, is confined in the hospital of San Ambrosco. Doctor Burgess. physician to the United States consulate general, having obtained permission from the government, visited Mr. Delgado today and found the condition of the patient slightly improved. It is understood that the prisoner Oscar Cespedes will be transferred from Matanzas to the Cabanas fortress, in Havana, at the request of General Lee. There is a report here that Senator John Sherman, chairman of the Senate committee on foreign relations, is expected

VIEWS OF MR. ROBBINS.

A Congressman-Elect Returns from Cuba and Discusses the Situation. GREENSBURG, Pa., Jan. 4.-Congressman-elect Edward E. Robbins, who has just returned from Cuba, says: "It is impossible to get reliable news direct from Cuba because of the censorship exercised over all matter, even private letters. The cause for which the Cubans are struggling is the war for independence. The Cubans have carried to Spain, and the peasants and the Spanish, but the whole country is under control of the insurgents. The plan of General Weyler is not to subdue the Cubans, but to exterminate them.

"Ten or twelve Americans are now confined in Moro Castle. I talked to Sanguilly, an American citizen who is sentenced to without having taken any part in the out-The American consul interposed, meantime, his chief witness, Colonel Oma, was shot by order of General Weyler and protecting the citizens of the United also protecting American property and the $50,000,000 of American capital invested on the island. This is a duty we owe our citizens. We also owe a duty to humanity to stop the cruel slaughter now going on

CAMERON'S RESOLUTION.

Senator Cullom Shows How It May Be

Defeated or Delayed. WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.-Senator Cullom, of Illinois, a member of the committee on foreign relations, returned to Washington tention of the committee on foreign relations, but indicates that in case the oppoenough it could be defeated as many other measures are defeated, by consumption of time in discussion of the subject. Senator Cullom says if it appears that it is the purpose of the opposition to the measure before the Senate. While he voted for the likely that steps in that direction are being takes any action that the committee on foreign relations will desire to confer with a view of determining the prospects of the passage of the Cameron resolution, and also as to how much opposition may be Delgado's Life in Peril.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.- The State De-Delgado, the New York Mail and Express ish prison, is likely to die unless a surgical and Express believes that the Spanish auoperation performed themselves, will permit it if the expense is met by Delgado. He has offered to meet the charges if the State Department will secure the permission. The department has advised the publisher of the paper to communicate directly with Consul General Lee on the subject. Delgado is suffering from a hepatic abscess, very common with patients in hot countries suffering from malarial fevers. Delgado is out of his mind most of the time. The only chance for his life is to have this abscess opened immediately, as Outrage on a Frenchman.

NEW YORK, Jan. 4.-Prof. A. De Bion arrived on the steamer Segunanca to-day from Havana. He said he was arrested at Guenabacoa and confined in police headquarters as a suspect. He had but just returned from Key West, whither he had gone from Havana three days previously to meet a friend. He was confined in a when he was released without any explanation other than that a mistake bad been made. Prof. De Bion is a Frenchman, His family live in Brooklyn. He has been twelve years in the tobacco business in Cuba and is not an American citizen.

General Aguirre Alive.

NEW YORK, Jan. 5. - A. A. Aguirre, brother of Gen. Jose Mari Aguirre, whose a telegram from a friend in Key West today," he said. "He said that he had just received a letter from my brother dated Jan. 2. My brother is at the head of two | Andrews, of Chicago, was elected without thousand men, and that day they defeated a column of Spaniards at Tapaste, only fif-

The Bermuda at St. George.

ST. GEORGE, Island of Bermuda, Jan. L-The British steamer Bermuda, Captain Scott, alleged to be a Cuban filibuster, which left New York Dec. 31, arrived here this morning twenty hours overdue, probably owing to fog and rough weather. It would have been impossible for her to land a fillbustering expedition on the coast of Cuba since she left New York on Dec. 23.

Comez May Surrender. MADRID, Jan. 4.-Private telegrams recelved here from Havana say it is possible that Maximo Gomez and other influential Cubans will surrender to the Spanish Fined for Exposing a Medium. BOSTON, Jan. 4.- The five young men who broke up a spiritualistic seance on Nov. 29 were to-day convicted of disturbing a religious meeting for the worship of God with interrupting a lawful assembly, and were fined $50, the maximum.

tle Last Night, with Results Nearly Equally Divided.

POLITICAL NEWS

ORGANIZATION OF LEGISLATURES.

of Dual Houses-Populists Ignored in Idaho.

for United States senator between Senator Boise Penrose and John Wanamaker will practically close to-morrow evening, when the joint Republican caucus will be held. The first skirmish between the rival candidates' friends took place to-night in the House Republican caucus. Perry M. Lyttle, of Huntingdon, was elected chairman over Ward R. Bliss, of Delaware, by a vote of 93 to 71. Neither side is willing to admit that this was a fair test of strength.

voted for Lyttle, while Bliss received the support of many active Wanamaker members. The caucus was called to order by William T. Marshall, of Allegheny. After the election of a chairman Henry K. Boyer, of Philadelphia, was nominated for Speaker; Jere B. Rex, of Huntingdon, for chief clerk, and A. D. Fetterolof, of Montgomery, resident clerk. All the nominations were made by acclamation. A committee of eight appointed to prepare a list of officers and subordinates of the House of Representatives to be presented at a caucus to be held Michael J. Lennon, of Allentown, for speaker, James A. Sweeney, of Hazelton, was named for chief clerk and John P. Dohoney, of Harrisburg, for resident clerk. The Legislature will likely adjourn Wednesday until Monday evening, Jan. 18, to give the presiding officers time to make up the list

John Wanamaker arrived on the scene at noon to-day and will remain until it is settled. A large delegation of Philadelphia business men came with him. They held a meeting this afternoon at the headquarters of the Business Men's League and adopted candidacy. He was given an ovation on his arrival. Rudolph Blankenburg, of Phil-Wanamaker campaign, said he was sure Wanamaker's election. He only gives + Senator Penrose 70 votes. The Penrose peo-

TROUBLE IN DELAWARE.

DOVER, Del., Jan. 4.-The Democratic members of the Legislature mustered nineteen votes for their House caucus to-night and selected Emory B. Riggin for speaker at a caucus. The Democratic senators tonight made overtures to George Fisher members offering him the position of readowever, wants the speakership or nothing.

the outcome is difficult to conjecture. Victory for Democrats.

DOVER, Del., Jan. 4.- The decision towhich latter body had rendered an opinion hould reconvene and recount the votes of several hundreds in Kent county, which the Union Republicans claim were unlawfuly thrown out by the canvass board. This is a victory for the Democrats and gives them a majority in the Legislature.

SCOFIELD INAUGURATED.

cort of the gubernatorial party from the Perkins's Chances Best.

lature of California met to-day, and after organizing adjourned until to-morrow, Perkins, Republican. In joint session the The re-election of Senator Perkins was generally conceded until recently. Now S. M. Shortridge, W. H. L. Barnes, C. F. Crocker and ex-Senator Charles L. Felton are all in the fight against Perkins. The friends of the latter claim he has sixty-seven votes pledged, six more than are necessary to Victory for Altgeld.

were highly laudatory of W. J. Bryan,

Fusionist Inaugurated.

HELENA, Mont., Jan. 4.-The legislative assembly of Montana met at noon to-day. The political division is as follows: Senate-Republicans, eleven; Democrats, Hanna refused to say. tine; Populists, three. sixteen; Republicans, eight.

Populists Left Out in the Cold. ceremony of any kind. Both branches of SANGUINE OF VICTORY.

INAUGURATION OF GOVERNORS AND

The Penrose people generally, though,

Possible Deadlock or Organization of Two Legislatures.

bility of two legislatures to-morrow, and

Wisconsin's New Governor Takes the

MADISON, Wis., Jan. 4.-Major Edward Scofield, of Oconto, was inaugurated Governor of Wisconsin to-day. The ceremony took place in the Assembly chamber at noon, and was simple in character, it consisting only of the administration of the oath of office by Chief Justice Cassidy, of the Supreme Court. A large crowd witnessed it, including ex-Senator Sawyer, ex-Governors Peck and Taylor and other notables. The only military feature was the esly after the inauguration Governor Sconeld | ton, is speaker. signed the commissions of appointees. The only changes from the present list are Major C. R. Boardman, of Oshkosh, to succeed General King, as adjutant general; William Scott, of La Crosse, to be superin-Colonel Morley, and Paul Scoffeld, son of the new Governor, to be executive clerk, Wm. J. Anderson remains as the Governor's private secretary. The ceremonies ball in the armory building at the State

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Jan. 4.-The Legis-

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Jan. 4.-At the meetmittee to-night Governor Altgeld was vic headed by himself and Secretary of State Hinrichsen, respectively. 'The Governor's candidate for state chairman Dwight W. opposition, Hinrichsen and others refusing to vote. Some warm talk was indulged in, but the opposition was unable to make a showing. Resolutions were adopted pledging the State Democracy's support of the principles and declarations of the last Democratic national convention. The resolutions

House-Democrats, forty-four; Populists, Three senatorial seats are contested, but the prospect is that no material change will occur. Hon. Robert R. Smith (fusion- of Amesbury, a prominent Democrat: ist) took the oath of office as Governor at 10 am confident that the gold standard will o'clock and delivered his message before the Legislature. It was confined to State

BOISE, Ida., Jan. 4 .- Governor Frank C. Stauenberg and the other State officers were sworn in shortly before noon without

We Have Been Telling You

About the changes we propose to make in the front and interior of the "Model." plans have been drawn up by Messrs. R. P. Daggett & Co., architects, and the contracts awarded. When these improvements are completed The New Model will be one of the most complete outfitting establishments in this country.

In the meantime every dollar's worth of merchandise in the house--whether "Model" or "Saks" stock--must go.

Every Dollar's Worth of Men's, Boys' or Children's Clothing Goes at 50c on the $1.00

Model $5 Men's Suits and Overcoats	$2.5
Model $10 Men's Suits and Overcoats	$5.0
Model $15 Men's Suits and Overcoats	$7.5
Model $20 Men's Suits and Overcoats	$10.0
Model $30 Men's Overcoats	$15.0
Model $2 Men's Pants	. $1.0
Model $3 Men's Pants	$1.5
Modei $5 Men's Pants	$2.5
Model $2 Knee Pants Suits	$1.0
Model $4 Knee Pants Suits
Broken lots of Young Men's Overcoats, sizes 14 to 20, were $10 to $15	$4.5
~~~~	^~~~

From the Model Stock From the Saks Stock

Every Garment entirely new, up to date, the best of its class in America. Not one but that was made for us within ninety days. Take your choice at

1-4 Off the Original Price

	Saks's $8.50 Suits	$6.38
6 0	Saks's $10 Suits and Overcoats	$7.50
	Saks's $12.50 Suits and Overcoats	$9.38
u V	Saks's $15 Suits and Overcoats	$11.25
	Saks's $20 Suits and Overcoats	$15.00
i N	Saks's $25 Suits and Overcoats
er N	Saks's $2 Separate Pants
	Saks's $3 Separate Pants
	Saks's $4 Separate Pants	$3.00
	Saks's $3 Knee Pants Suits
	Saks's $5 Knee Pants Suits	The state of the s
	Saks's Knee Pants, Reefers, Overcoats, etc., all at 1/4	OFF.
UI.

Reduction sales vary. There are as many kinds of reduction sales as there are months in the year. The air is full of them at the present time. In the Saks stock there is but one marking-from our work-rooms to our counters. No middleman's profit to pay. Do you know what a saving this means to you?

Clearance Sale of

Furnishing Goods.

Heavy Underwear, broken lines, values 50c, 75c and $1	23 c
Plain and Fancy Flannel Overshirts-Men's and Boys'-
that were $1, $1.25 and $1.50	48c
That were $2, $2.50 and $3	98c
Neckwear, a lot of Puffs and Four-in-Hands, were 25c and 48c, now	15c
Fancy Shirts, Men's and Youths, broken lines, that were
$1, now	48c

Smoking Jackets.

About one dozen, odds and ends, mostly small sizes, were $3.50 to $7, now$1.00
Mufflers, Silk and Cashmere, were 69c, 98c, $1.48, $1.98 and $2.48 1/2 OFF

Clearance Sale of

Hats and Caps.

Scotch Knit Tams, were 50c and 75c	25 c
Odds and Ends of Men's Winter Caps, were 25c	10c
Odds and Ends of Men's Winter Caps, were 50c	15c
Men's and Boys' Plush Caps, were 75c	48c
Fine Kersey Cloth Brighton Caps, silk lined, patent fore-	•
head protector, worth $1.25	75 c
Regular $1.50 Hats	95c
Regular $2.00 Hats	$1.45
Regular $3.00 Hats	$1.95
£	~~~

The Saks Guarantee makes no distinction between goods bought at regular prices or reduced prices, between Model or Saks stock. If you bought it here it must give satisfaction. Money back if it doesn't.

Saks & Company

The Model.

"Saks's Corner."

the Legislature met at noon and were or- set at rest to-day rumors that he would not ganized by the Democrats and silver Re-Democratic nominees. The Populists, who fused with the Democrats in the election, train by the Governor's Guard. Immediate- | did not get a place. A. Halford, of Lewis-

GENERAL POLITICS.

Californians Hold a Conference Regarding a Cabinet Position. WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.-The Republican congressional delegration from California held another meeting to-day to consider concluded this evening with an inaugural | the matter of uniting on some citizen of McKinley for a place in the Cabinet during ing had adjourned a member of the dele- Kinley and Hanna, and was chairman of gation said that after full consultation the there was no reason to recede from the position already taken by it at a previous gathering, but that in deference to the opinion of Republicans of California with made by the delegation at its former meeting, that Mr. Horace Davis, of San Francisco, be appointed to a place in the Cabto the attention of Major McKinley and that it has met with a protest from a few of the leaders in State politics. It was stated by a member of the delegation that if California receives a Cabinet position that it will fall to Judge McKenna, who will be appointed attorney general. Mckinley and Hanna.

CLEVELAND, Jan. 4.-Major and Mrs. McKinley remained quietly at Windemere, Mr. Hanna's suburban home, this morning. The only visitor who had an audience with the President-elect was Congressman Corarrive at his office until nearly noon. He had a large number of callers, among whom were National Committeeman A. B. Cum- | for temporary use as a hospital. mings, of Iowa. Mr. Cummings states that he came to Cleveland on personal business, and that his visit at this time had no political significance. Mr. and Mrs. McKinley took a drive i the afternoon, and in the evening received a few personal friends. The President-elect will go to Canton Wednesday evening on personal business and return the next morning. An important conference will take place to-morrow, but with whom Mr.

Bryan's Latest Letter.

AMESBURY, Mass., Jan. 4,-W. J. Bryan has written this letter to James L. Tibbitts, disappoint those who expect it to restore permanent and general prosperity. consciousness of duty done must sustain us until we see the triumph of our cause. I have no doubt of ultimate victory.

Tillman Will Contest. NASHVILLE, Tenn., Jan. 4.-G. N. Till- Tom Curry, William Bishop and Simon EVERY HUMOR From Pimples to Scrofule cured by man, Republican candidate for Governor, Pitty, colored, were instantly kined ..... EVERY HUMOR CUTICURA REMEDIES.

contest the election of R. I. Taylor, Governor-elect, by announcing his counsel, who are Lewis Sheppard, of Chattanooga; S. W. Hawkins, of Huntington, and Samuel Watson, of this city. Mr. Tillman, his counsel and a number of Republicans held a conference to-day and decided to begin at once the preparation of the papers in the Mckintey's Private Secretary.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.-A wise man from Ohio gives it out that speculation as to who will be McKinley's private secretary is all at fault, and that instead of it being Perry S. Heath. Boyle or any one thus far named, the choice will fall on Major W. F Dick, of Akron, O. Dick is a warm personal friend of long standing of both Mcthe Republican campaign committee of Ohio both times the President-elect was Governor. He is rated as a superb politician and an adroit handler of men. Prospective Bishop. BALTIMORE, Md., Jan. 4.-The rumor hat the Rev. D. J. O'Connell will be made bishop of Wilmington has crystallized into what is now regarded as a certainty in Catholic clerical circles in this city. Several against the Propaganda.

months ago Dr. O'Connell decided to enter his departure from the American College,

n Rome, and had, it is said, the financia backing of a Baltimore lady. His appointsurmised, cause him to withdraw his action

State Hospital Burned. ROCK SPRINGS, Wyo., Jan. 4.-Th Wyoming State General Hospital, located here, was burned to the ground this morning about 8 o'clock. The fire caught from a furnace chimney being too close to the woodwork. Ten patients were in the buildng and were removed, but one woman died on the way down town from fright. Everything except the building was saved. The loss is about $45,000, with $15,000 insurance. The city hall has been taken possession of Women's Bicycle Race. CLEVELAND, O., Jan. 4 .- The six-day cycle race for women riders began in the Central Armory here to-night at 8:30 p. m They will ride two hours each night. All made thirty-eight miles and one lap tonight except May Allen, of Liverpool, England, who is fourteen laps behind. riders are Tillie Anderson, Chicago: Dollie Farnsworth, Minneapolis; Jennie Brown Rochester, N. Y.; Pearl Keyes, Rochester, Movements of Steamers. NEW YORK, Jan. 4.-Arrived: La Normandie, from Havre; Olympia, from Naples. Sailed: Zaandan, for Amsterdam.

N. Y.; Amy Kalgren, St. Paul; May Allen

Liverpool, England.

LIVERPOOL, Jan. 4.-Arrived: Wanderer, from New Orleans. Five Miners Killed. SOUTH M'ALESTER, I. T., Jan. 4.-Five miners-Martin Royan and Joe Cox, white,

The explosion is supposed to have been caused by the fire boss unscrewing his safety lamp, which ignited the gas. No damage was done to the property. A Norse Lullaby. The little feet of the reindeer go (Hush, hush, the winds are low). And the fine little bells are ringing! Nothing can reach thee of woe or harm-Safe in the shelter of mother's arm (Hush, hush, the wind's a charm.) And mother's voice is singing. Father is coming-he rides apace: Fleet are the steeds with the winds that rac (Hush, hush, for a little space) The snow to his mantle's clinging His flying steed with the wind's abreast-Here by the fire are warmth and rest (Hush, bush, in your little nest).

And mother's voice is singing Over the crust of the snow, hard by, The little feet of the reindeer fly Hush, bush, the wind is high). And the fine little bells are ringing! Nothing can reach us of woe or harm-Safe in the shelter of father's arm (Hush, hush, the wind's a charm), And mother's voice is singing.

The Way of the World. suit against the Propaganda growing out of Louisville Commercial. Editor Jo B. McCullagh, of the St. Louis Globe-Democrat, one of the best newspaper men in America, has been getting ment to the see of Wilmington will, it is

-M. L. Van Verst, in St. Nichelas

Here They Go Again. The resignation of Helen M. Gougar leaves the National Prohibition party with-much more praise since his death than he ever got when alive.

out a man to lead it.

mothy skin, itching, scaly scalp, dry, thin, and falling bair, and baby blemishes, prevented by

CUTICURA SOAP, the most effective skin purifying and beautifying soap in the world, as well as purest and sweetest for toilet, bath, and nursery.

AMUSEMENTS. GRAND-To-Night, Wed. Mat.

Rosabel Morrison Supported by Edward Elsner in the Great Play CARMEN The fifteen-minute bull fight which occurs dur-

Scats Pembroke. THIS THEATRE DOES NOT ADVERTISE IN THE INDIANAPOLIS NEWS

ENGLISH'S Taursday, SAT. MAT. DE WOLF HOPPER n "EL CAPITAN" Prices 25c, 10c, No. 31, $1,5c, Septs Pembroke THIS THEATRE -

DOES NOT ADVERTISE PARK-To-Day-3 P. M. Hopkins's Trans-Oceanic Star Specialty Co.

The Great High-class Vaudeville Event. New Views the Kinematographe 4:15, 10:15 Prices-16c, 26c, 30c, Next-"Sidewalks of New fork," with Speedy, champion high diver. DOES NOT ADVERTISE IN THE INDIANAPOLISNEWS EDEN MUSEE Daily, 11 a.m. to 11 p. m.

CRYSTAL MAZE DOES NOT ADVERTISE X

EMPIRE--ONE WEEK!

stroducing more novelties than any show BIG SENSATION, Jan. 11, 12, 13, ext- BULL FIGHTERS, Jan. 14, 15, 16,

TOMLINSON HALL Week Beginning Jan. 4.

Poultry, Pigeon, Dog and Pet Stock Combination Show

Augmented by Boone's SOAP is sold throughout the world. POTTER DEUG AND CHEM. A gregation of Lions and Siberian Bloodhounds CORP. Sole Props., Boston, U.S. A. Bloodhounds of How to Prevent Face Humors," mailed free.

ADMISSION-25c; children, 10c. Open